STATEMENT OF PURPOSE & PRINCIPLES

National BIWAYS is produced by the Australian Bisexual Network to inform its audience about social, political and personal issues relevant to bisexuality and bisexual people, to provide a forum for exchanging opinions and sharing experiences, to link up with and support geographically or socially isolated bisexual people, to foster the Bisexual Movement in Australia and to help build a diverse multicultural community of bisexual and bi-friendly people and groups in Australia and elsewhere.

ABN realises that bisexuality is inextricably linked to other identities (gender, race, class, etc). Our intention is that National BIWAYS will represent a broad spectrum of bisexual voices and images. We are committed to taking an active role in building a multicultural bisexual community free of racism, sexism, classism, homophobia and other forms of oppression.

Through self-examination and through the contents of this news magazine, we will endeavour to challenge our own racism, classism, sexism (and our own biphobia) as well as that of others. We will work to create a supportive bisexual community and to promote equality and understanding for bisexual people in both the heterosexual and the lesbian/gay communities. We regard ourselves as part of a larger sexual minority (queer) community, a gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender communities, and consider the fight for lesbian and gay rights to be our own. We advocate the recognition, inclusion and involvement of bisexual people in existing gay and lesbian and transgender communities, in lesbian and gay politics, in community development and consultations, in sexual health and HIV/AIDS issues, policy, research and education. ABN does not support the promotion of pedophilia or organisations that promote it.

We are sex-positive, recognising that we live under increasing sexual oppression. We support sex education for its own sake. We advocate the distribution of information and resources to halt the spread of HIV/AIDS, STDs and unwanted pregnancies. We support the rights of people with HIV/AIDS to be free of discrimination, to have access to information, housing and quality medical care and treatments.

We seek to expand, not constrain, the definitions of bisexual and we respect the right of the individual to define her/his own self-definition, identity and type of relationship(s), free from any social, political, religious or economic coercion. We support healthy relationships between consenting adults. We acknowledge the right of partners, particularly female partners of bisexual men, to quality non-judgemental counselling and health services if needed, to greater understanding by all communities and to honesty in their relationship.

National BIWAYS is published at least once every two months. It is available by membership subscription, exchange, from various affiliated bisexual groups in Australia or through our international outreach work. The views expressed in this magazine are those of the authors unless otherwise stated. The inclusion of a person's name or photograph or business advertisement should not be taken as an indication of their sexual identity or sexual orientation.

The Australian Bisexual Network, Bisexual Youth Forum, the Bisexual Community Centre and National BIWAYS are unfunded and rely on your support to keep going. We welcome submissions of material for publication; assistance with production; involvement in Network and group activities, individual and community financial or "in kind" support.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Welcome. I am excited at the prospect of ABN hosting a national conference in Sydney in February 1997. For the conference to be a success, we will all have to play some role, large or small. We will need helpers, volunteers, presenters and of course attendees. Do try where ever you can to support ABN to hold a successful and fulfilling conference.

News that the Queensland Government is planning to abolish the Queensland Anti-Discrimination Commission is cause for alarm. Any such moves by the Attorney General, Denver Beanland to abolish the Commission and gut the Act of its clauses must be resisted by all Queenslanders. Moving authority from the Commission to the Magistrates Courts will result in few people taking complaints to court, delays in court cases, added financial burden on the person who has suffered discrimination and less understanding by court personal to the feelings and emotions of the "victim".

If you live in Brisbane or regional Queensland, do support any campaigns to "Keep the Commission and Act Intack".

Please remember, ABN needs you to keep us informed of what is happening in your state, territory, city or region. We need you to send us news clippings of items of interest from your state or local newspapers. Only then can ABN act to address any issues, provide comment, support or follow-up and keep the other members informed. We appreciate those members and supporters who send us news, articles, information and notice of events. However we need more involvement from you all in this area. It only takes a few minutes and a postage stamp to get info to us.

Oz News

NSW moves closer to Same Sex Partnership Law.

It appears the NSW Government will introduce legislation very soon that will legally recognise same sex partnerships. The legislation will be similar to that presently operating in the Australian Capital Territory.

Draft 3rd National HIV/AIDS Strategy.

ABN received a copy of the Draft 3rd National AIDS Strategy for comment and feedback. Wayne Roberts is presently reading through the Strategy and will forward comments on behalf of ABN to Canberra.

Wayne advises that unlike the previous two strategies bisexuals or bisexually active men are not explicitly referred to in the Strategy. Nor are the female partners of these men. The terminology now used is homosexually active men which is suppose to cover, straight, bisexual and gay men who have sex with men. Strange then that we see the terms gay men and homosexually active men used side by side in some parts of the Strategy.

It is disappointing that bisexual people, partners and our developing community is not recognised in this draft 3rd Strategy. One hopes that ABN's comments will see some recognition of our needs and our identity in the final Strategy.

Calling Perth Bisexuals.

A group of Perth ABNers are interested in getting together on a fairly informal basis and having the odd meal, or drink, and see this as a way to keep in touch.

Any Bi's out there in Perth and surrounds who would be interested in coming along, or interested in talking about something at another time (Movies, Coffee, whatever) should get in touch. Any Bi women interested in getting together socially can also make contact by sending a letter to Anne, care of WABN.

Interested? Drop me some mail, or post a response to Andrew Bloomer, c/- WABN, PO Box 1167 Canning Vale, WA 6155 or e-mail to: ajb@bloomer.echidna.id.au

Queensland Anti-Discrimination Commission Rumoured to Go.

Rumour and speculation about the future of the Queensland Anti-Discrimination Commission has resulted in major concern among groups with a stake in the legislation. It has been rumoured that Queensland's Conservative Coalition Government will abolish the Commission and the Commission's functions will somehow be folded into the Magistrates Courts service. The Queensland Council for Civil Liberties called a meeting of interested groups on September 9th to urgently discuss the Commission's future.

Anti-Discrimination Act to be Gutted ???

Rumour has it that the Act will be gutted and thereby made virtually useless. Queensland Anti-Discrimination Commissioner, John Briton, addressed the meeting along with representatives of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders, women's, ethnic and disability groups.

Inside sources reveal that anti-discrimination clauses covering lawful sexual activity (sexuality), union membership, political affiliation, age will be the first to be gutted from the Act. Removal of the "sexuality" clause will have a direct impact on BISEXUAL people in Queensland. Employers will again be able to sack us from jobs, we could be denied accomodation and other services. We will have no legal redress against discrimination.

If you are a woman who is sexually harassed, a person who is Aboriginal or of an ethnic background and discriminated against because of your race or a person discriminated because of a disability, you would have to take your case to the Magistrate Courts, engage your own lawyer at your own expense and if you lose the case pay for all costs. How many of us could do this or afford to do it? Very few, we fear.

Time is short (possibly a little as 2 weeks) and it is critical that we act quickly. Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgender groups along with Unions, women's groups, ethnic and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders groups and disability groups will be mobilising for action.

Brisbane's GLBT communities are being mobilised now for a huge letterbox drop in a Minister's electorate on Friday, 27th September.

If you live in Brisbane and can help out on the letterbox drop, call ABN on 3857 2500 or call Shayne on 3892 5767. Best time to call her is early morning or late evening.

To find out what other groups are doing or for more information call the Queensland Council for Civil Liberties President, Ian Dearden or his secretary, Kisten Collier, on (07) 3236 1311.

The Commission is first, what is next???

PLEASE COME FORWARD TO HELP.

Federal Sexuality Discrimination Inquiry

Ironically the Senate Inquiry into Sexuality Discrimination which has been travelling around the States and Territories holding hearings will be in Brisbane on October 1st.

The Australian Bisexual Network made a written submission to the Inquiry in late July. In the submission, ABN stated that ABN National Coordinator, Wayne Roberts, would be available for hearings in Brisbane. At time of going to print, ABN had not heard whether Wayne would be called before the Inquiry. The Queensland AIDS Council has received notice that it can appear before the Inquiry on October 1st.

If any Bisexual people or partners of Bi people have any stories of discrimination against them, please contact Wayne at the Australian Bisexual Network. Your name would not be used in any evidence presented to the Inquiry but we need to know about your case of discrimination or harassment. Contact Wayne, evenings and week-ends on ABN's phonenumber, (07) 3857 2500 or toll free outside Brisbane on 1800-653223.

2nd Australian Conference on Bisexuality

The Australian Bisexual Network in partnership with the Australian Centre for Lesbian and Gay Research University of Sydney will be holding a national bisexual conference in Sydney from February 21 to 23, 1997. It has been decided that it will be titled, the 2nd Australian Conference on Bisexuality with the theme, Lifestyles, Sex and Politics. The conference would be open to anybody with an interest in all aspects of bisexuality and bisexual people, lifestyles and culture to present papers, workshops or attend as delegates. The conference would primarily be promoted to the bisexual and queer communities but some advertising will be placed in the mainstream Media.

The 1st Australian National Bisexual Conference was hosted by the fledgling, Western Australian Bisexual Network in Perth back in October 1992. The Australian Bisexual Network was born out of a resolution coming from that conference. It is now time to have a truly national conference on bisexuality.

The conference would be held during the Sydney Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras Festival to capitalise on the large number of people that will be in Sydney during the Festival and the many cultural events forming part of the Festival. The conference would also be a statement of bisexual solidarity with the lesbian and gay communities. The Australian Bisexual Network will call on our members and other volunteers to assist in the promotion, planning and preparation of the conference. The Australian Centre for Lesbian and Gay Research would utilise their well established skills in conference administration, planning and organisation.

The Australian Bisexual Network with the backing of the Australian Centre for Lesbian and Gay Research will be seeking financial support from various bodies. The Centre would administer of any funding obtained for the conference. It is hoped that funding can also be obtained to bring an international keynote speaker to the conference. ABN has booked the Pride Centre in Sydney for the Conference.

International News.

Following is the official press release of the First Les/Bi/Gay Caribbean Conference held in August.

Sebastiaan Nijhoff (sebastiaan@caribbe.an) Coordinator, Apex.

1ST CARIBBEAN CONFERENCE ON GAY, LESBIAN AND BISEXUAL ISSUES

In August the first conference to explore issues affecting Gays, Lesbians and Bisexuals in the Caribbean was held in Jamaica. This conference was held with the financial and technical assistance of the Government of the Kingdom of the Netherlands. Over 14 Caribbean countries were represented, with support of an even broader group of countries and territories.

During the conference participants were able to share the specifics of each territory as regards Gays, Lesbians and Bisexuals. In addition strategies for reaching these groups in the different territories were discussed, as well as the necessary educational approaches towards those groups and the wider Caribbean communities in general.

At the end of the conference the foundations were laid for the formation of a Caribbean body to continue the work. Participants left the conference with the conviction that such a body is of vital importance and that urgent work should be done and continued to further this method of Caribbean integration. A follow-up meeting is planned for 1997 to monitor progress and deal with subsequent issues. A steering committee of representatives of four countries (Jamaica, Trinidad, Surinam, Netherlands Antilles) is coordinating the different tasks that were set out and preparing next year's conference in Curacao (Netherlands Antilles). The Curacao association of gays and lesbians, ORGUYO (pride), will for the time being be channeling the steering-committee's P.R.

Bisexual Options Web Page Upgraded.

The internet resource for all Bisexuals has been upgraded.

It can now be found at the new URL site:

It now features BiWorld International News with Bi news and information for Australia, Canada, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Netherlands, United Kingdom and United States of America. ABN has placed a direct link to this page on our new main web page.

Also updated is the Bi Contacts which has been divided up into sections which include Rest of the World and several North American regions. Australians have been slow to list themselves in the Rest of the World section. It is free and there is a choice of categories from basic penfriends to looking for sexual relationships. If you have an internet connection, you can access Bisexual Options at the URL above or by clicking on the Bisexual Options icon on ABN's web page.

Buenos Aires First for Latin America.

Buenos Aires, Argentina has become the first Spanish language city in Latin America to introduce anti-discrimination laws to protect residents. Among the clauses is protection on the grounds of sexual orientation. Over the last 12 months, gay bars in Buenos Aires and other Argentinian cities have been subjected to police raids and clients held for hours and subjected to abuse. Recently a transvestite activist, Mocha Celis, was murdered in an attack local activists suspect was carried out by a member of the police.

The new Statutory Convention will strike down the wide police powers that have been used to arrest transvestites and other social groups such as gays, lesbians and bisexuals.

Argentinian activist, Alejandra Sarda in a news story in Brother Sister 6th Sep 96, describes how this historic passage came about following the creation of Buenos Aires as an autonomous city governed by its own set of rules rather than federal laws. ABN welcomes the new city Convention.

Bi Conference held in Vancouver.

On September 7th, Vancouver, Canada hosted the first British Columbia Bisexual Conference with a one day conference followed by the Dancin' Both Ways dance party. Kurt who was at IBIS in Berlin and lives in Vancouver, told ABN that he would be attending. Hopefully we may get a short report on how the event went for our next issue of National Biways. Also attending was Roberta Wedge of the London Bisexual Women's Group, whom happen to be in Canada at the time. Anyone planning to visit British Columbia can make contact with the British Columbia Bisexual Network by writing to:-

Swiss Bisexual Network a possibility.

BINE, the German Bisexual Network, that hosted the International Bisexual Symposium in Berlin in May reported on BiWorld International News, that as a result of a report on IBIS in one leading Swiss newspaper, BINE has been receiving letters from bisexuals in Switzerland. There are signs that a Swiss bisexual network might now evolve.

USA Senate Passes DOMA, Defeats ENDA.

The 'Defense of Marriage Act' was passed in the US Senate, by a majority large enough to make the question of Bill Clinton's signing it irrelevant? This means that, if and when Hawaii passes laws legalising same-sex marriages, they don't have to be recognised in other states.

At the same time, the Employment Non-Discrimination Act, which made discrimination in employment on the basis of sexuality illegal was defeated 49-50. It is thought that once the elections are out of the way, this Bill will be reintroduced in 1997 and will be passed. We hope so.

Cher Confesses to Being Bisexual.

According to a report in The Sun (UK) in July, Cher confessed to being bisexual. In an interview by her lesbian daughter, Chastity Bono for US gay mag, The Advocate. Cher admitted to having had relationships with women when she was younger but added, "It's not my lifestyle."

Bi and Gay Pride at Manila Pride March.

National Biways reported in our last issue about Daniel Ocampo and his boyfriend, Jorgen participating in Manila's Gay and Lesbian Pride March on June 22nd. Daniel is one of the Philippines' -"out"- bisexuals and he is fast becoming it's first bisexual activist. Both Daniel and Jorgen were interviewed for a documentary which was screened on June 27th.

Jorgen and Daniel at the Manila G & L Pride March
Manila, The Philippines June 22nd 1996.

Daniel has recieved some harassment at his University from fellow students who saw the program. He has been brave in facing their taunts and requested a bundle of ABN brochures on Bisexuality to give out to them. Daniel tells us this seems to have worked.

Daniel has also had to combat biphobia in the local gay community as well. The brochures are also coming in handy to help educate gay people about bisexuality. ABN will continue to support Daniel and other bisexuals in countries where people are struggling for recognition of their identity and where there are emerging bisexual communities. Daniel may join us in Sydney in February 1997 for OzBiCon '97.

Cuban Bisexuals Crave for Information.

You may recall the letter from Pedro who lives in Holguin, Cuba in our last issue of National Biways. Pedro requested an issue of our magazine and any other bisexual information. Well Pedro tells us in another letter that he received our parcel of Biways and brochures. He found the information of great value and has been showing it around to his friends.

ABN has now received another request from Cuba. Like Pedro, Rolando is bisexual and heard about ABN from an article in an Argentinian gay magazine. Rolando works in the capital of Havana but originates from the country side. He is seeking financial support or possibly the chance to come to Australia. ABN will endeavour to do what it can but if you feel you want to help too, donations can be sent to ABN which will see that Rolando will receive them. Rolando's letter was translated for ABN by the Migrant Resource Centre and is reproduced in this issue of Biways.

FALLING FROM GRACE ... INTO A DEEPER GRACE!

Quoting Lanu Kaahumanu's beautiful poem (in Bi Any Other Name) "I was a public lesbian who fell from grace...". I was a very visible lesbian activist, in a happy 3 year old lesbian relationship, I felt my life was going to fall into pieces when, almost three months ago, I acknowledged to myself (and then to him) that I was in love with a very visible gay activist who was in a happy 8 year old gay relationship. The process that started then, and still goes on, has been quite complicated but very enlightening to us both and to our community. From the very beginning, we had the complete support of the more marginalized community members: transvestites, androgynous, most young lesbians and gays. A few lesbians and a few gays were supportive too, while others were disturbed, judgmental, threatened, etc. Our partners did, and are still doing, their best to accomodate to our new identities and to be part of this extended family we are trying to build. I am proud of my lesbian friends because today I can say I did not lose a single one of them (something I strongly feared); after the initial shock they have been completely supportive and now include both of my lovers in everything, from phone greetings to social interactions. We had an open meeting with all those we consider part of our community; it was a tough one, but now I see it was very fruitful. People respect our honesty and courage, and nobody has been aggressive or despising. What I once learnt as a lesbian - that being crystal-clear about whom you are is a very worthy way of living - proved to be true in this case too. I'm proud of my capacity to love both women and men, and of my decision not to hide anything about it. Both my male lover and I had decided to define ourselves as pansexuals, because we like the idea of having all doors ready to be opened, all possibilities at hand for any time we wish to use them. We will be trying our best to include this new word whenever and wherever we can (I did it few days ago when I was invited to give a lecture for University students, and they loved it!

And we will do the same with the term "bisexuals" which has almost never been mentioned in our city's events. We know that the very fact of our being here, openly loving each other and loving our other partners too, helps many others to have a more flexible, less restrictive attitude towards themselves and others. For us, it wasn't planned, just accepted. Joyously accepted. And now, we are very glad it happened. Life seems more relaxed, richer and wider from this shore.

Victory at all costs.

It was a foul humid summer's night a couple of years ago that I found myself facing serious injury at the hands of a crazy drunk with sunburn. I was walking down the backstreet to the train station when he came out of nowhere behind me.

"Hey ya fuckkin poof. Come here and gimee a kiss"

The road was poorly lit and there was really nowhere to run except away. I started to feel apprehensive about what I might be walking into. Any number of guys could've been in the shadows further down the street. I had the idea I might be walking into a trap if I moved away from the guy behind me and futher into the darkness.

"Hey you fuckin faggot"

I turned around slowly. Fear and adrenalin was racing right through me. I didn't know what was going to happen. I could feel my bladder spasm and my legs were going weak. I was scared I'd piss myself more than anything else.

I faced him.

He was a big guy. looked like a footy player of some sort. He was clearly fucked up on alcohol. His face was mean, bitter and twisted. A bad case of sunburn made him look crazed. He just looked at me.

"Faggot."

"Fuckin faggot"

"FAGGOT"

I wasn't too sure he was capable of setting up a trap for me in the street but for some reason I decided that I would leave the street by walking past him.

I wasn't gonna take his shit. I was prepared to get my ass whipped. I was drunk and sick of people's hateful pointless shit. I walked towards him. Looking him in the eye. Watching for any sign of movement.

"FAGGOT"

I got closer. Fear was starting to rack my system. I didn't know if I could last 30 seconds with this guy. My initial determined walk felt as if it was disintegrating rapidly and I wanted to run past this guy and into mainstreet. I don't know why but I couldn't get it together to sprint past him.

Inexorably I felt my legs stroll.

I ended up about a meter away from this guy. He was wider and taller by far. He stared down at me.

"POOF"

"Fuck you." The words slipped out. I started to fear dread. I knew he was gonna hit me.

"What did you say faggot ?"

He said it in a surreal soft and soothing manner. It scared me. Then a disabling thud hit me centre of my face. I saw a flash and felt a sharp pain in my tailbone as I hit the road. I felt a warm gentle flow of blood flow over my lips and down my chin. I looked up at him.

"Fuckkin faggot. Hahah I broke ya fucking nose."

I felt dizzy. The drunk just stood there. I scrambled to my feet and stepped away from him. He was gloating. His face was tatoored with a sense of victory. I hated him for it.

I looked at him again. "You reckon you broke my nose ?"

"Yeah faggot. D'ya want me to make sure its done properly ?"

He swayed as he looked down at me.

I took another step back. I swung my right arm up hard into my face. I felt a sharp sting as flesh tore and another thud as my brain rattled inside my skull cavity. The coolness of my fist felt tainted with the warmth of coagulating blood.

I felt a strange delight in hitting myself. In a way I was scum. I couldn't fight back. And I didn't want to let him get a second punch in. More blood flowed out of the fresh cut on the bridge of my nose as I rubbed it. I smeared blood across my face. I looked at him. He seemed stunned.

Aggression in his face was consumed by confusion.

"YOU DIDNT BREAK MY FUCKING NOSE. YOU DIDNT BREAK IT FUCKHEAD. I JUST DID. HAHAAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAH" I turned away and walked into the dangerous shadows.

"FUCKKIN FAGGOT," he kept yelling and chanting in anger and disgust.

But he didn't follow me.

MEDIA WATCH

Since the last issue of National Biways, bisexuality has been in the straight print media again. The three magazines featured here deal with their bisexual articles in different ways.

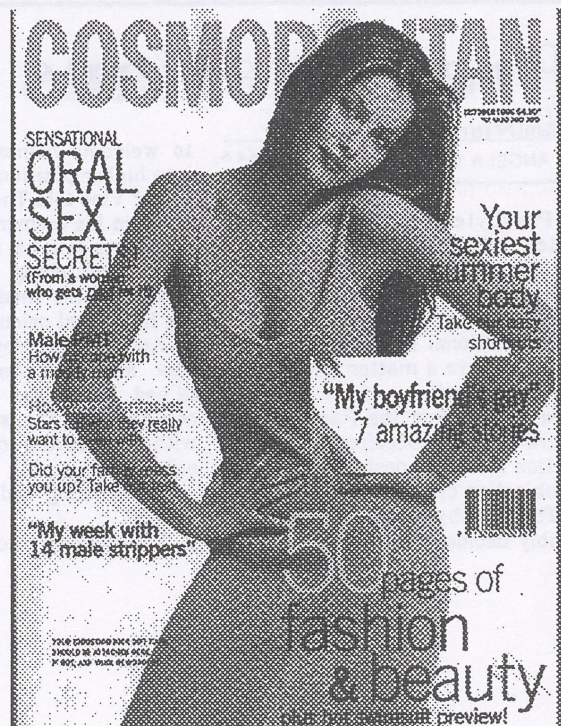

The Spain issue of Marie Claire (June ), available here in August, looks at the rise of bisexuality and features "real" people. Mani, 25 is in a relationship with Kris, 23 and Gonzalo, 28. Anyone interested in translating the article for ABN?

The August 19th issue of New Weekly was heavily promoted on television as was it's article, "Why Aussies are Turning Bi-Sexual". When purchased one finds out that the story is only about three straight women who have had lesbian flings yet the use of a female and two male models clearly depicts male bisexuality. The article has no male bisexuality and the cover and advertising are outright misleading. ABN wrote to New Weekly but were ignored. We are lodging a complaint to the Advertising Standards Council.

The October issue of Cosmopolitan, out now, carries seven stories of women in or who were in relationships with "gay" men. To ABN these men are certainly bisexually active and while they may not identify as bi, one can hardly call them all "gay".

WHAT DO BISEXUALS DO IN BED?

Pic from the Tristar film Threesome

'Go on, you might like it!'

A MAJOR SOURCE OF FASCINATION TO WE BOYZ, BISEXUALS ARE OFTEN SEEN AS GAY MEN TOO CHICKEN TO COME OUT AS GAY, OR AS STRAIGHT MEN LOOKING FOR A LITTLE CREDIBILITY. WE GOT J, A SELF-CONFESSED BISEXUAL MAN, TO TALK US THROUGH THIS WHOLE BI THING.

I've always fantasised about being penetrated. In fact, I've fantasised about sleeping with men as long as I can remember and at school I had sexual experiences from the age of 8 with equal numbers of boys and girls. My sexuality is still a mystery to me, which is why I suppose I'm bisexual.

I quite like breasts, I quite like vaginas and I like penises too. There are men I've been to bed with and I've thought, "Wow, what a fabulous cock", which you can't really do with a vagina. If you want raunchy sex and you're lusting after someone, great tits or a great dick make a difference. If it's about a relationship, it's not so important.

At this moment I fancy women more than men - I'm in a relationship with a woman, which is monogamous, but I still do fancy men. I'm attracted to different things in men and women but I like androgyny. I don't particularly fancy effeminate men but I don't go for really butch hairy types either. And I don't really go for woman-y women. The woman I'm seeing at the moment has got a voracious sexual appetite and she's quite boyish. She also takes the initiative a lot, which is important for me. When it comes to sex, often women are passive and men are more likely to take the initiative. With this woman, I can make outrageous suggestions and she's always up for it: she's sucked me off on a coach, we've had sex on The Shuttle. She'll never say no to anything. Very gay male behaviour. In fact, I met her in a gay club.

A while ago I had a threesome with a man and a woman - something I'd never done before. It was probably the ultimate pinnacle of a bisexual's career to have a man and a woman in bed together. I met this guy, he was gay, and he was out with this straight woman friend of his. I fancied him, but I fancied her even more. There was something new for all of us: she'd never slept with two men, he'd not slept with a woman since he'd decided he was gay and I'd never slept with a man and a woman together. It was all quite mutual, though I probably gave her more attention than I gave him. I was kissing her, fingering her, licking her while he was giving me a blow job. Then I started giving him a blow job. There were no condoms available, so there was no penetration. It was kind of interesting for all of us, but especially him because I think it awakened something in him.

Ultimately, I think sexuality is quite fluid and I don't think anyone should let themselves ban a whole section of the population from their erotic ideas just because of their gender. ●

TEST YOUR OWN BISEXUALITY

Simply: Write a list of ten men ranging from absolute pig at one end, Bernard Manning for example to eminently shaggable at the other. Then write a list of women, but in reverse, starting with, say Kate Moss so that she is next to Bernard Manning. Most gay men would rather sleep with Kate than Bernard. So you go to the second pair, maybe John Major and the black-haired girl from Friends, and decide which one you'd rather shag. Carry on until you cross from your lady list to your gentleman list. Et voilà, that should give you some idea of how bisexual you are.

| MAN  | GORGEOUS |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  | PIG |
| ♂    |          |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |     |
| ♀    |          |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |     |
| LADY | GORGEOUS |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  | PIG |

Presbyterians tight-lipped

From DOMINION 24/7/96 4
By ANGELA OTS Bi-lines.

Presbyterian Church leader Peter Willsman won't comment on why the Auckland Presbytery postponed a bi-sexual minister's induction.

The national Moderator said inductions were a matter for individual presbyteries, and he had not been informed of the Parnell case where minister Geoffrey Vine's induction had been postponed so that an objection could be heard.

The Presbyterian General Assembly decided two weeks ago should to welcome homosexual ministers into higher positions in the Church.

Mr Vine told The Post last week some in his former Northcote congregation felt he spent too much time counselling outsiders and talking to the media after revealing his sexual orientation.

Auckland presbytery clerk the Rev Margaret Anne Low maintained there was nothing in the complaint or the way it was dealt with that related to Mr Vine's sexuality.

Its handling had been "pure logistics".

The executive committee felt it would cause least embarrassment if the induction was postponed rather than leaving the objection to be heard on Thursday night when it would have stopped the induction.

The rule about hearing objections on the night dated back to last century when Church leaders rode miles on horseback to inductions.

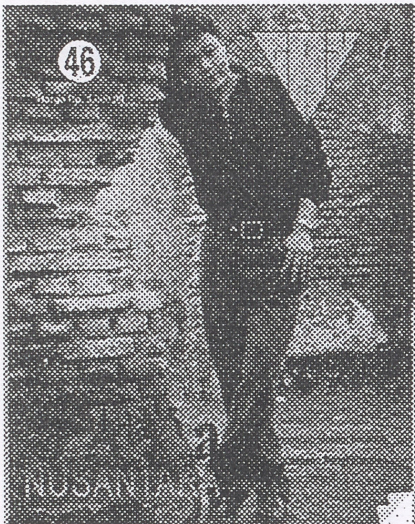

North Shore minister Max Reid said he understood Mr Vine's case was to do with a procedural matter. The case was going through the Church's courts.

NEWSLETTER & MAGAZINE EXCHANGE

The Australian Bisexual Network exchanges and receives various newsletters and magazines from Bisexual and LesBiGayTrans groups in Australia and around the World. Many receive issues of our magazine, National Biways.

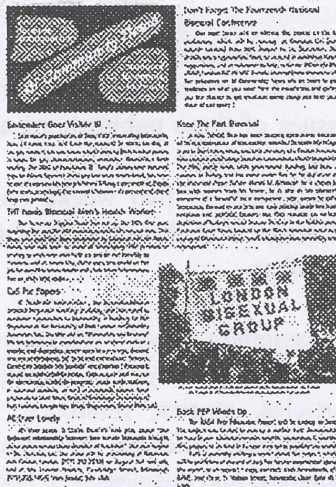

Here are some of the recent arrivals. We also receive Bi magazines from the Dutch and German Bisexual Networks though these like the Indonesian one below are not in English.

MORE NEWSLETTERS & MAGAZINES.

Newsletters and Magazines from other Bi Networks and GLBT organisations are made available to those attending the Brisbane meetings. They may be borrowed just as the books and articles in ABN's Resource Library can be borrowed.

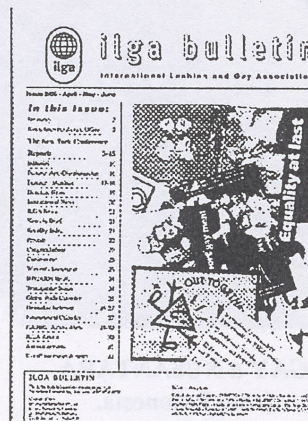

ABN members only outside of Brisbane can request for specific issues of these publications and may borrow them for a maximum of two weeks only. Postage is at the expense of the member.

Newsletters and Magazines contain many interesting articles, stories, references to resources, calendar of events, personal and business ads, book, video and movie reviews.

Exchanging and sending out our own National Biways to groups and individuals overseas does not come cheaply. It costs $3 per issue to send to Europe, Africa and South America, $2.50 to ABN also welcomes donations to help this Program. ABN thanks those groups that send us their publications as it is not easy for them either.

Addressing the Need, Unravelling the Myths.

A Report on Peer Education in the Bisexual Community.

This United Kingdom Report by Kath Arrowsmith was released in July 1996. ABN has just obtained a copy, thanks to Ian Watters of Bisexuals' Action on Sexual Health (BASH) which set up the Peer Education Project (PEP).

The Report has some interesting but not unexpected findings and makes some very important recommendations which we hope will be taken up by the HEA and other bodies in the UK. ABN's Wayne Roberts plans to use aspects of the Report in his presentation, BiDING OUR TIME - a Bisexual Community in Waiting, at the Health In Difference Conference in Sydney in October.

ABN MEMBERSHIP

ABN is a national organisation and to seek national support and funding we need not only the support of members but all the other Bisexual people that make contact with ABN. If every bi person that contacts ABN by mail or telephone was to join ABN we would have a membership of many hundreds of women and men and a powerful lobbying tool for seeking national support and funding.

We have a new Federal Government and one that is slashing funding and spending. Prospects may look dim for any grants to come our way but we must continue to lobby for recognition and support. ABN will be making approaches to the new Federal Community Services and Health Minister.

To our members, your continued support is greatly appreciated and to those who are up for membership renewal, we ask you to join up for another year as we need your ongoing support.

If you are a new reader of National Biways, please consider joining ABN as a financial member. You may feel you do not need to become a member of the Australian Bisexual Network, to get involved at even that level but ABN needs you. To receive the respect and recognition of both government & community agencies we need to show we have the support and backing of a diverse Bisexual Community from across the country. For just $20 a year or $15 if you are a student, unemployed or on a pension, you can become a full member of ABN and receive National Biways. Couples can join for $20 and organisations for $25. At the same time you are helping ABN secure funding and provide services to the Bisexual Community throughout Australia.

A fab AFFAIR

With last year's event an outstanding success, raising over $23,000, the Green Park Hotel will once again be holding its fourth annual fundraiser for St Vincent's Hospital. AFFAIR (Annual Fundraiser for AIDS Involved Research) is to be held over the weekend 26-28 October. This year's target is $25,000. The format is simple. Donated liquor products are sold over the bar, auctioned or raffled, with the full price donated to AFFAIR. Other donated items can also be auctioned or raffled, the more unusual the better. But all contributions and donations are welcomed.

Trash party

For all of you who have been turning blue holding your breath, it's time to exhale. This year's annual trashlands party theme has finally been announced - "Plastic and Seersucker". Held on the first Saturday in November, the awarding of the Gold Otto, Silver Otto and Bronze Otto will happen at Midnight, so will the crowning of Miss Trashlands 1997. For more info call Mr or Mrs White Trash on 049 62 2591.

Educational Bi Video to be made for ABN

ABN member, Dianna, has arranged with the Film School at Griffith University in Brisbane to produce an information and educational video on Bisexuality for the Australian Bisexual Network. 2nd and 3rd year students will produce the video.

Dianna is looking for any bisexual men and women who are willing to either

- 1/ have their voices recorded only (not identified) or
- 2/ be video taped with face identified.

We need to have a good cross section of the Bi community so if you are interested give ABN a call on (07) 38572500 evenings/week-ends.

This is a wonderful opportunity for ABN is spread more information about bisexuality and bisexual lifestyles as well as raise the visibility of the Network and increase membership. ABN wishes to thank Dianna for her efforts and also the Film School and students at Griffith University.

Ballin' with the boys

This new poster is part of a campaign by the Western Sydney Area Health Service to target straight, married and bisexual men who sometimes have sex with other men. The poster is intended to highlight in a "sex positive" way that many men who do not identify as gay (or even bisexual), and are in relationships with women, do sometimes have sex with men. An ad campaign will also appear in Western Suburbs newspapers. For further details contact Chris O'Reilly on 9843 3118.

RRAP it up in Western Queensland

PLEASE TAKE NOTE

IF YOU'RE INTERESTED IN SOMETHING DIFFERENT

DIFFERENT EXPERIENCE,
DIFFERENT DESTINATION,
DIFFERENT FOLKS,
DIFFERENT LIFESTYLES

another RRAP weekend event for men is being planned for October 19 and 20.

A caravan of cars will leave Toowoomba late on Friday afternoon (Oct 18) and another at 9am on Saturday morning - their destination will be a massive cattle property about four hours from Brisbane... and once again we think you're gonna love it! If you can make it to Toowoomba, you can caravan/car pool from there. If you live in the country, please talk to us about how we can make arrangements for you to join us.

The RRAP team has learned a few things from the Boonah event (in June remember) which had to be postponed - we will not be hiring conference facilities so our financial commitment is not so great - nevertheless we will need to make a small charge to cover costs. $25 waged and $15 unemployed and pensioners. BYO food & alcohol - a limited variety of food will be on sale! - BYO camping gear - you are going bush - so good boots, hats and sensible clothes are the order of the day.

It is essential that people do book and do pay in advance.

As it turned out, RRAP probably could have gone ahead with the Boonah event because in the last week (well after the day on which we had to finally commit to the conference venue proprietors) we had more than enough people phoning to say they wanted to join us. Don't be one of those people who won't commit or plan ahead??

IF YOU ARE INTERESTED

PLEASE PHONE

STEVE on 015 130 185
or BILL on 076 351 248 home or 076 316 446 work

CONFIDENTIALITY IS CRITICALLY IMPORTANT TO THE SUCCESS OF A RRAP EVENT - SO WE ARE LETTING EVERYONE KNOW THAT ALL PARTICIPANTS WILL HAVE TO WORK WITHIN SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS.

Come join us at the Classic's opening night of "beautiful thing"

on Thursday 19th September at TPM at the Classic cinema, 963 Stanley St. East Brisbane, followed by a Party at the Wickham.

The film version of award winning gay playwright Anthony Harvey

16 year old Jamie lives alone with his mum, who is a battler, good at her job as a barmaid, attractive and witty. His hatred of sport, and love of old movies hints at his sensitive nature. Neighbors either side are friends, Ste and Leah. Ste is good looking and sports mad. Sadly, he suffers taunts and beatings from his older brother and drunken father. Leah has dropped out and spends her time listening to old records, especially Mama Cass, who has become her heroine.

When Ste escapes from a beating by his brother, he finds himself sharing a bed with Jamie when Sandra puts him up. As the boys become more attracted to each other, the film relates a happy story of falling in love, coming out and the gradual acceptance of others.

Ticket prices are $11 ($8 concession)
(Prices include entry to the party)

Tickets from Wickham Hotel or ring Wayne on 3372 7297 or at the cinema on the night.

Proceeds go to the Gay & Lesbian Welfare Assoc. Inc. to be used to maintain Gayline (3839 3277) & Lesbianline (3839 3288)

Thanks to the Wickham Hotel and the Classic Cinema for their support

An Australasian Bisexual Anthology.

Some of you will have seen this before...

Yes, this project is still happening, though it went to sleep for a while last year. If you know any individual who might be interested, please forward this to them. If you think another mailing list, or a note on a web page, or an insert in some newsletter or something similarly public would be suitable, I would be happy about that in principle, but PLEASE ask me about it first. There are RL phone numbers & addresses on there...

thanks,
Cath

The swinging sultan

A BLOCKBUSTER film has angered conservative Turks over what they say are hints that a 17th-century Ottoman sultan was bisexual.

Istanbul under My Wings tells the story of a Turkish scientist who built his own wings from Leonardo da Vinci's blueprints and was able to fly. Sultan Murad IV, who supported the endeavour, is depicted in the constant company of a handsome young man.

A pro-Islamic Welfare Party MP has asked Parliament how such a film could receive state funds. — AP
